

While at Pocahontas...
Pocahontas is just minutes away from the historic state capitol, Richmond. Richmond has numerous historical, cultural and recreational offerings including museums, theaters, parks and more. To the south, Petersburg offers a historical tour of many of that city's attractions. There are also several Chesterfield attractions close to the park. The Chesterfield County Museum is located at the courthouse complex at Beach Road and Route 10. Its exhibits include antique toys, woodcarvings, Victorian clothing and much more. The museum is open Tuesday-Friday and Sunday. Just across Route 10 from the courthouse is Magnolia Grange. This Federal style plantation house was built in 1822 and is decorated with authentic furnishings in the traditional style of the 1820s. This national historic landmark is open to the public Tuesday-Friday. There is an admission fee for both Magnolia Grange and the Chesterfield Museum. Several shopping centers in the area and the town of Chester, all located on Route 10 south of the park, feature grocery stores, laundry facilities and other services.
